PHARMACEUTICAL & HEALTHCARE

Consulting Services

Pharmaceutical and Healthcare Consulting Services

We provide expert advice on multiple aspects of product development programs and assistance with tasks that can arise post-approval, specializing in:

- Strategic Planning (cost effective development, integration of nonclinical programs with clinical development, and anticipation and resolution of regulatory hurdles).
- Program Management (including nonclinical safety studies, clinical and CMC advice, and regulatory issues).
- Regulatory Affairs (regulatory strategies and guidance, preparation of CMC, nonclinical and clinical written summaries and tables, from premeeting packages to filing full submissions for clinical trials or market registration worldwide).
- Toxicology Consulting (scientific issue resolution, risk and safety assessments, interpretation and positioning of data, scientific writing, liaison with regulatory agencies worldwide, and due diligence activities).

Toxicology Consulting

Intertek provides expert toxicology consulting services to pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and medical device companies. Intertek's Board-certified experts and their teams offer clients years of scientific research and hands-on industry experience. We deliver innovative and effective solutions that address complex product development, toxicological, and safety issues to our clients worldwide.

Regulatory Support

Intertek regulatory professionals have detailed knowledge of the applicable legislations and regulations which govern pharmaceutical and medical products, and other regulated or notifiable materials, in North America, Europe, and many other jurisdictions around the world. We continually survey regulatory policies and practices to provide clients with timely information that reflects developments and changes. Our understanding of the intricacies and processes of regulatory agencies is unsurpassed. The combination helps our clients to develop cost effective and successful regulatory strategies which are 'right the first time'.
